Small and mighty is the Warbstow Way

NEWSLETTER 24 – 28th March 2025

Dear Parents and Carers,

Welcome to the end of a sunny spring week. It's been a busy one packed full of learning! Our learning enquiries are in full swing and I have celebrated many role models this week for their wonderful efforts. Attenborough Class produced some super work on heroines past and present after finishing their learning about Grace Darling. I hope you enjoy seeing this in your child's book next week when we host our open book session.

Thank you for your support last week in our 'do something fully for money' in aid of Comic Relief. We raised £155 with donations and our bake sale. Your generosity is very much appreciated and helps the collective efforts of Comic Relief and the good work that they do.

Wednesday is our open book session from 8:40-9am, do come along and share in your child's pride.

Wishing you a lovely weekend, Mrs Bancroft

New Guitar Teacher

As Joe goes on to his next adventure after the Easter break we have a new guitar teacher coming to Warbstow, Joanna Ballard from the Cornwall Music Service Trust.

If you would like to sign your child up for guitar lessons starting after Easter in either a group or an individual lesson, please sign up via Cornwall Music Service Trust and CMST will be in touch.

Egg Rolling

Our annual egg rolling 'eggtravagansa' will take place next Friday. Children will need to hard boil (this is 'eggtremely' important!!) and add some 'eggcellent' decoration to an egg at home, we then roll/throw/smash our eggs in a competition. The more creative decoration the better! House points will be awarded for decoration and rolling. Please DO NOT bring your eggs into school until Friday.

Our value – RESILIENCE

This week I read a delightful story to the children 'After the Fall' – Life begins when you get back up. Humpty is famous for falling off a wall. But that's only half the story, because he decided to get back up. And when he did, something amazing happened...

I can thoroughly recommend this book, it is in our school library. A picture book for all ages!
